

EXPERIENCED ATTORNEY(GS-0905-13/14/15)
FRAUD SECTION
CRIMINAL DIVISION
U.S. DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE
WASHINGTON, DC

About the Office: The Fraud Section is a litigating unit that investigates and prosecutes complex white-collar crime cases throughout the country and implements and coordinates enforcement policy. Fraud Section cases focus on corporate and securities fraud schemes, financial institution and insurance fraud, fraud involving government programs such as Medicare, and international criminal activities including the bribery of foreign government officials in violation of the Foreign Corrupt Practices Act. In recent years, the section has developed cases and initiatives directed at cyber schemes and schemes to victimize consumers through identity theft, "prime bank" schemes, Internet fraud and telemarketing fraud.

Responsibilities and Opportunity Offered: The Criminal Division, U.S. Department of Justice, is seeking experienced attorneys to fill openings in the Fraud Section based in Washington, D.C. The Fraud Section, the largest litigating component of the Criminal Division, directs and coordinates the federal effort against fraud and white-collar crime. The section annually prosecutes about 80 fraud cases of national significance or great complexity. Currently, the section is prioritizing investigations of corporate misconduct and securities fraud.

Qualifications: Required qualifications: Applicants must possess a J.D. degree, be duly licensed and authorized to practice as an attorney under the laws of a State, territory, or the District of Columbia and have at least three years of post-J.D. legal experience. Applicants should have a strong academic background as well as excellent research and writing skills.
Preferred qualifications: Criminal trial experience as well as experience in investigating and prosecuting corporate fraud schemes including securities fraud, accounting fraud and false filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission is preferred. A demonstrated interest in white-collar crime issues is highly desirable.

Travel: The positions require frequent travel.
Note: A three-year commitment to the position also is requested.
